

Alejandro Hernandez III, J.D.

Founder & Principal Advisor · ARH Global Advisors

PROFILE

Clear judgment begins with a considered structure.

Alejandro Hernandez III, J.D. is the founder and principal advisor of ARH Global Advisors. His work sits at the intersection of governance, strategic assets, and the decisions families, fiduciaries, and owners need to make with care.

"Durable governance is not a document on a shelf. It is a repeatable way of honoring the responsibility attached to a decision."

MEDIA USE

Approved founder profile for professional press, interview, and speaking-reference use.

FAMILY ENTERPRISE

Values, participation, continuity, and aligned decision-making across generations.

FIDUCIARY INFRASTRUCTURE

Roles, decision rights, conflict awareness, and review processes for consequential work.

STRATEGIC STEWARDSHIP

Practical structures for assets, enterprises, and relationships requiring patient judgment over time.

A POINT OF VIEW

Governance becomes useful when it makes responsible choices more repeatable.

Alejandro's perspective brings practical attention to the human, structural, and strategic dimensions of consequential decisions.

SELECTED MEDIA & SPEAKING THEMES

- Family enterprise continuity, participation, and shared decision-making.
- Fiduciary roles, conflict awareness, and governance structures for consequential work.
- Strategic stewardship across assets, enterprises, and long-term relationships.

PRESS & SPEAKING

For professional media and speaking inquiries:
info@arhconsults.com
+1 (646) 290-7380

CREDENTIALS

Juris Doctor · St. Mary's University School of Law
B.A., Economics · The University of Texas at Austin
arhwealthadvisors.com